Brookfield & Oak Creek (OC)

The course schedule below is provided to aid student planning. It includes the on-site courses that are scheduled for the Brookfield and Oak Creek campuses through Fall 2 2015. Ottawa University reserves the right to make changes to this schedule as warranted.

Currently, most online courses are asynchronous and entirely online; face-to-face meetings are not required. The MBA capstone course, BUS 8500 Graduate Seminar, is offered every term online; the MAHR capstone course, HRF 8481 Applied Case Studies in Human Resources, is offered every other term online. Students are required to complete 30 semester credits prior to enrolling in the capstone course for their program.

Students can access the online graduate course schedule at: http://www.ottawa.edu/Locations/Online/Other-Links/Course-Schedules

New students are required to attend a New Student Orientation session prior to the start of their first course. Students enrolling in an online course should sign up for an Orientation to Online Learning training session prior to the start of the new term.
