The Poly-Victimization of Children - Dr. Robert Rhoton

Monday, March 17, 2014 - 09:00 am - 04:00 pm - Chandler Campus

Poly-victimization describes the experience of multiple victimizations of different types. Research shows that the impact of poly-victimization is much more powerful than even multiple events of a single type of victimization (such as military trauma). This training is designed to begin equipping practitioners with the skills they need to assess and assist poly-victims.
