Adjusting Discussion Prompts in the New Blackboard Experience

Terms to know:

- Forum or Board: An area where topics are discussed.
- Thread: Within a forum, a list of posts is called a thread. Students respond to a prompt that is posted in a thread.
- Prompt: The question that is posted in a thread.

Workflow:

1. Click on the Discussion Board icon in the top right set of tabs from within your Blackboard course.

PYC-8082-ACG-8400-Master-Online-C PYC 8082-ACG-84	ontent-ULTRA-2 00 Fundamentals in	0 🖾 🙃 🗉 🖸
No Inst	ructor Enrolled	Discussions
Details & Actions	Course Content
Roster View everyone in your course	Instructor Resources Hidden from students	*** 🗸
A Course Groups

2. Click on the chevron for the appropriate discussion week, then click the ellipsis, then Edit.

PYC 808	2-ACG-8400 Fundamentals in the Treatment of Trauma, Abuse and De	privation	ßE	× ©
盒				(†) (†)
	Week 1 Course Discussion ♦ Visible to students Respond to each prompt by Wednesday at 11:59 p.m., C and Sunday. Please post at least twice during this time a this by Sunday at 11:59 p.m., CT.	entral Time. Reply to each other betw and to at least two of your course ma	••• ween Thursday tes. Complete	Î 🔪
የ	Week 1 - Discussion Prompt 2 No due date Visible to students	🖉 Edit	ţ
e E	Week 1 - Discussion Prompt 1 No due date Visible to students	View Analytics		c

3. Click on the ellipsis next to the prompt text, then Edit.

	Discuss	ion	Grades & Participatio	n
Discussion Topic		0	Discussion Settings	ź
How do you think your understa change your approach in dealing	nding of the constellation of PTSD sympton with clients?	ns will	Participate by
	d Edit		No due date
Responses (0)	Delete

4. Make the needed changes to the discussion prompt, then click Save.