CEP students may transfer up to 80 credits to Ottawa University.

*Tuition at Ottawa University will be $324 per credit hour. Online courses at Ottawa University have an additional technology fee of $85 per term. Please meet with an Ottawa University enrollment advisor to calculate full tuition costs. In addition, refer to this tuition webpage for the most updated information:

<https://www.ottawa.edu/adult-and-graduate/tuition-financial-aid/tuition-and-fees/>

Textbooks, supplies and course fees are additional.

*Tuition rates subject to change – please check the most current information available on both institution websites.

If I am receiving financial aid, how will it be disbursed between the two schools?

Because federal regulations require that federal loans can only be disbursed through one college at a time, you will need to decide which institution will handle your aid. Since Ottawa University is the higher cost institution, we suggest that you allow Ottawa to be your “home” institution for financial aid. In order to do this and so your Maricopa credits can be used in your eligibility calculations, you will need to complete and sign an Ottawa University consortium agreement each term. This will enable Ottawa University to obtain your financial aid and issue any remaining credit balance refunds. Because Ottawa will be receiving your Financial Aid after the start of each term, you will need to plan to pay your Maricopa Nursing Program tuition out of pocket (or by an alternative payment arrangement with Maricopa) and then reimburse yourself with any refund you may receive from Ottawa.

How are classes scheduled?

You will be registered for your MaricopaNursing classes through the community college nursing department. Course schedules will be sent to you. Ottawa University nursing courses are online. You will be notified of which courses, and sections, to register for.

When do course (online format) classes start?

The Ottawa University CEP course (online format) courses will be offered approximately two months prior to the MaricopaNursing start date and the Ottawa University concurrent courses (taken during the MaricopaNursing blocks) are all offered online.

Where do I go for academic advisement for this program?

Maricopa and Ottawa University enrollment advisors are available for pre-application advisement at Maricopa locations and Ottawa University.
