Sexual Misconduct Policy

I. POLICY STATEMENT

Ottawa University (the “University”) is committed to providing a learning, working, and living environment that promotes personal integrity, civility, and mutual respect in an environment free of discrimination on the basis of sex. The University considers sex discrimination in all its forms to be a serious offense. Sex discrimination constitutes a violation of this policy, is unacceptable, and will not be tolerated. Sex discrimination includes discrimination on the basis of pregnancy, gender identity, and failure to conform to stereotypical notions of femininity and masculinity.

Sexual harassment, whether verbal, physical, or visual, that is based on sex is a form of prohibited sex discrimination. Sexual harassment also includes sexual violence. The specific definitions of sexual harassment and sexual violence, including examples of such conduct, are set forth below.

II. SCOPE

This policy applies to administrators, faculty, and other University employees; students; applicants for employment; customers; third-party contractors; and all other persons that participate in the University’s educational programs and activities, including third-party visitors on campus (the “University Community”). This policy prohibits sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual violence even when the complainant and alleged perpetrator are members of the same sex, and it applies regardless of national origin, immigration status, or citizenship status. The University’s prohibition on sex discrimination and sexual harassment extends to all aspects of its educational programs and activities, including, but not limited to, admissions, employment, academics, athletics, housing, and student services.

The University has jurisdiction over Title IX-related complaints regarding conduct that occurred on campus, during or at an official University program or activity (regardless of location), or off campus when the conduct creates a hostile environment on campus. The University will investigate all complaints made under this policy and, if necessary, take action to prevent the recurrence of sex discrimination and remedy its effects.
III. TITLE IX STATEMENT

It is the policy of the University to comply with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and its implementing regulations, which prohibit discrimination based on sex in the University’s educational programs and activities. Title IX and its implementing regulations also prohibit retaliation for asserting claims of sex discrimination. The University has designated the following Title IX Coordinator to coordinate its compliance with Title IX and to receive inquiries regarding Title IX, including complaints of sex discrimination:

Lisa J. Johnson
Director of Governmental, Regulatory, Legal Affairs
1001 S. Cedar
Ottawa, Kansas 66067
(785) 248-2326
lisa.johnson@ottawa.edu

A person may also file a complaint of sex discrimination with the United States Department of Education’s Office for Civil Rights regarding an alleged violation of Title IX by visiting www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/complaintintro.html or by calling 1-800-421-3481.

A. Definition of Sexual Harassment

Sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, physical, or visual conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when:

• Submission to such conduct is made or threatened to be made, either explicitly or implicitly, a term or condition of an individual’s employment or education; or
• Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used or threatened to be used as the basis for academic or employment decisions affecting that individual, or
• Such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual’s academic or professional performance or creating what a reasonable person would perceive as an intimidating, hostile, or offensive employment, education, or living environment.

B. Examples of Sexual Harassment

Some examples of sexual harassment include:

- Pressure for a dating, romantic, or intimate relationship
- Unwelcome touching, kissing, hugging, rubbing, or massaging
- Pressure for sexual activity
- Unnecessary references to parts of the body
- Sexual innuendos, jokes, or humor
- Making sexual gestures
- Displaying sexual graffiti, pictures, videos or posters
- Using sexually explicit profanity
- Asking about, or telling about, sexual fantasies, sexual preferences, or sexual activities
- E-mail and Internet use that violates this policy
- Leering or staring at someone in a sexual way, such as staring at a person’s breasts or groin
- Sending sexually explicit emails or text messages
- Commenting on a person’s dress in a sexual manner
- Giving unwelcome personal gifts such as flowers, chocolates, or lingerie that suggest the desire for a romantic relationship
- Commenting on a person’s body, gender, sexual relationships, or sexual activities
- Sexual violence (as defined below)

C. Sexual Violence

1. The Definition of Sexual Violence

Sexual violence is a form of prohibited sexual harassment. Sexual violence includes physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person’s will or where a person is incapable of giving consent because of his or her temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity, because of his or her youth, or because of his or her incapacitation due to the use of drugs and/or alcohol.
2. Examples of Sexual Violence

Some examples of sexual violence include:

- Rape or sexual assault: sexual intercourse (anal, oral, or vaginal) by a man or woman upon a man or woman without consent
- Unwilling sexual penetration (anal, vaginal, or oral) with any object or body part that is committed by force, threat, or intimidation
- Sexual touching with an object or body part, by a man or woman upon a man or woman, without consent
- Sexual touching with an object or body part, by a man or woman upon a man or woman, committed by force, threat, or intimidation
- The use of force or coercion to effect sexual intercourse or some other form of sexual contact with a person who has not given consent
- Having sexual intercourse with a person who is unconscious because of drug or alcohol use
- Hazing that involves penetrating a person’s vagina or anus with an object
- Use of the “date rape drug” to effect sexual intercourse or some other form of sexual contact with a person
- One partner in a romantic relationship forcing the other to have sexual intercourse without the partner’s consent
- Exceeding the scope of consent by engaging in a different form of sexual activity than a person has consented to
- Knowingly transmitting a sexually transmitted disease such as HIV to another person through sexual activity
- Coercing someone into having sexual intercourse by threatening to expose their secrets
- Secretly videotaping sexual activity where the other party has not consented
- Prostituting another student/employee

D. Sexual Misconduct

Collectively, sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual violence will be referred to as “sexual misconduct” through the remainder of this policy and the complaint resolution procedures.

E. Definition of Consent
Lack of consent is a critical factor in determining whether sexual violence has occurred. Consent is informed, freely given, and mutually understood. Consent requires an affirmative act or statement by each participant. Consent is not passive.

- If coercion, intimidation, threats, and/or physical force are used, there is no consent.
- If a person is mentally or physically incapacitated or impaired by alcohol or drugs such that the person cannot understand the fact, nature, or extent of the sexual situation there is no consent.
- If a person is asleep or unconscious, there is no consent.
- Consent to one form of sexual activity does not imply consent to other forms of sexual activity.
- Consent can be withdrawn. A person who initially consents to sexual activity is deemed not to have consented to any sexual activity that occurs after he or she withdraws consent.

F. Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Stalking
The crimes of domestic violence, dating violence and stalking can also constitute sexual misconduct when motivated by a person’s sex. These crimes, no matter the motivation behind them, are a violation of this policy.

1. Domestic Violence
“Domestic violence” includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of a victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse or the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.
2. Dating Violence

“Dating violence” means violence committed by a person:

(A) who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and

(B) where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:

(i) The length of the relationship.
(ii) The type of relationship.
(iii) The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

3. Stalking

“Stalking” means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:

(A) fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or
(B) suffer substantial emotional distress.

V. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

A. Title IX Coordinator

It is the responsibility of the Title IX Coordinator to: (1) receive complaints under this policy; (2) coordinate dissemination of information and education and training programs; (3) assist members of the University Community in understanding that sexual misconduct is prohibited by this policy; (4) answer questions about this policy; (5) appoint investigators and ensure that they are trained to respond to and investigate complaints of sexual misconduct; (6) ensure that employees and students are aware of the procedures for reporting and addressing complaints of sexual misconduct; and (7) to implement the Complaint Resolution Procedures or to designate appropriate persons for implementing the Complaint Resolution Procedures.
B. Administrators, Deans, and Other Managers

It is the responsibility of administrators, deans, and other supervisory staff (i.e., those that formally supervise other employees) to:

- Inform employees under their direction or supervision of this policy
- Work with the Title IX Coordinator to implement education and training programs for employees and students
- Implement any corrective actions that are imposed as a result of findings of a violation of this policy

C. All Employees

It is the responsibility of all employees to review this policy and comply with it.

D. Students

It is the responsibility of all students to review this policy and comply with it.

E. The University

When the University is aware that a member of the University Community may have been subjected to or affected by conduct that violates this policy, the University will take prompt action, including a review of the matter and, if necessary, an investigation and appropriate steps to stop and remedy the sexual misconduct. The University will act in accordance with its Complaint Resolution Procedures.

VI. COMPLAINTS

A. Making a Complaint

1. Faculty and Employees

All University faculty and employees have a duty to promptly report sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator when they observe such conduct or a report of sexual conduct is made to them. This does not apply to the employees who may maintain confidentiality as described in Section VI.A.3 of this policy.
2. Students

Students are encouraged to file a report under this policy when they experience or witness sexual misconduct. Students who wish to report sexual misconduct should file a complaint with the Title IX Coordinator. Students should be aware that all faculty and employees at the University, except those who may maintain confidentiality as described in Section VI.A.3 of this policy, have an obligation to report sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator if they observe such conduct or receive a report of such conduct.

Students may also file a complaint with the United States Department of Education’s Office for Civil Rights, as set forth in Section III above.

3. Confidential Reports

If a victim desires to talk confidentially about his or her situation, s/he may contact: Ottawa University Counseling Center, located at Ward Science Hall; 785-248-2317. Hours are 8am-4:30pm, Monday through Friday; or Ottawa University Health Services, located Ward Science Hall; 785-248-2318. Hours are 8am-4:30pm, Monday through Friday. They are available to assist you and will not report your circumstances to the University for investigation without your permission. Notwithstanding, Ottawa University Counseling Center, will report a crime to the appropriate University personnel for inclusion in the University’s annual crime statistics disclosure, though your name will be withheld from this report. Other external resources that are available include:

GaDuGi Safe Center
GaDuGi is a local resource available for students who are victims of sexual violence. To contact GaDuGi, call 785.84.8985 or visit their website at www.gadugisafecenter.org.

RAINN
The Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network is the nation's largest anti-sexual assault organization. RAINN operates the National Sexual Assault Hotline at 1.800.656.HOPE and the National Sexual Assault Online Hotline at rainn.org, and publicizes the hotline's free, confidential services; educates the public about sexual assault; and leads national efforts to prevent sexual assault, improve services to victims and ensure that rapists are brought to justice.
Kansas Coalition Against Sexual & Domestic Violence
To contact KDSDV, call the Kansas Crisis Hotline at 888.END.ABUSE or 888.363.2287. You can also view their resources at www.kcsdv.org.

4. Content of the Complaint
So that the University has sufficient information to investigate a complaint, the complaint should include: (1) the date(s) and time(s) of the alleged conduct; (2) the names of all person(s) involved in the alleged conduct, including possible witnesses; (3) all details outlining what happened; and (4) contact information for the complainant so that the University may follow up appropriately.

5. Conduct that Constitutes a Crime
Any person who wishes to make a complaint of sexual misconduct that also constitutes a crime—including sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking—is encouraged to make a complaint to local law enforcement. If requested, the University will assist the complainant in notifying the appropriate law enforcement authorities. In the event of an emergency, please contact 911. A victim may decline to notify such authorities.

6. Special Guidance Concerning Complaints of Sexual Violence, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, or Stalking
If you are the victim of sexual violence (including sexual assault), domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, do not blame yourself. These crimes are never the victim’s fault. When physical violence of a sexual nature has been perpetrated against you, the University recommends that you immediately go to the emergency room of a local hospital and contact local law enforcement (911 if emergency), in addition to making a prompt complaint to the Title IX Coordinator. You may also wish to call the National Sexual Assault Hotline at 800-656-HOPE. Additional resources are listed in Section VI(A)(3).

If you are the victim of sexual violence, domestic violence, or dating violence, do everything possible to preserve evidence by making certain that the crime scene is not disturbed. Preservation of evidence may be necessary for proof of the crime or in obtaining a protection order. Victims of sexual violence, domestic violence, or dating violence should not bathe, urinate, douche, brush teeth, or drink liquids until after they are examined and, if necessary, a rape examination is completed. Clothes should not be changed. When necessary, seek immediate medical attention at an area hospital and take a full change of clothing, including shoes, for use after a medical examination.

It is also important to take steps to preserve evidence in cases of stalking, to the extent such evidence exists. In cases of stalking, evidence is more likely to be in the form of letters, emails, text messages, etc. rather than evidence of physical contact and violence.

Once a complaint of sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking is made, the complainant has several options such as, but not limited to:

• contacting parents or a relative
• seeking legal advice
• seeking personal counseling (always recommended)
• pursuing legal action against the perpetrator
• pursuing disciplinary action
• requesting that no further action be taken

A complainant who makes a claim related to sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking will be given a copy of the document titled “Explanation of Rights and Options After Filing a Complaint of Sexual Violence, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, or Stalking.”

7. Vendors, Contractors, and Third-Parties

This policy applies to the conduct of vendors, contractors, and third parties. If any of these people believe they have been subject to sexual misconduct in violation of this policy should make a report to the Title IX Coordinator. They may also file a complaint with the United States Department of Education’s Office for Civil Rights, as set forth in Section III above.

Likewise, members of the University Community may file complaints under this policy against vendors, contractors, and third parties.
8. Retaliation
It is a violation of this policy to retaliate against any member of the University Community who reports or assists in making a complaint of sexual misconduct or who participates in the investigation of a complaint in any way. Persons who believe they have been retaliated against in violation of this policy should make a complaint in the manner set forth in this section.

9. Protecting the Complainant
Pending final outcome of an investigation in accordance with the Complaint Resolution Procedures, the University will take steps to protect the complainant from further discrimination or harassment. This may include assisting and allowing the complainant to change his or her academic, transportation, work, or living situation if options to do so are reasonably available. Such changes may be available regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to campus police or local law enforcement.

If a complainant has obtained an order of protection, temporary restraining order or other no contact order against the alleged perpetrator from a criminal, civil, or tribal court, the complainant should provide such information to the Title IX Coordinator. The University will take all reasonable and legal action to implement the order.

B. Timing of Complaints
There is no statute of limitations for complaints under the Sexual Misconduct Policy. However, the University encourages persons to make complaints of sexual misconduct as soon as possible because late reporting may limit the University’s ability to investigate and respond to the conduct complained of.

C. Investigation and Confidentiality
All complaints of sexual misconduct will be promptly and thoroughly investigated in accordance with the Complaint Resolution Procedures, and the University will take disciplinary action where appropriate. The University will make reasonable and appropriate efforts to preserve an individual’s privacy and protect the confidentiality of information when investigating and resolving a complaint as it applies to both complainant and respondent. However, because of laws relating to reporting and other state and federal laws, the University cannot guarantee confidentiality to those who make complaints.

In the event a complainant requests confidentiality or asks that a complaint not be investigated, the University will take all reasonable steps to investigate and respond to the complaint consistent with the request for confidentiality or request not to pursue an investigation. If a complainant insists that his or her name not be disclosed to the alleged perpetrator, the University’s ability to respond may be limited. The University reserves the right to initiate an investigation despite a complainant’s request for confidentiality in limited circumstances involving serious or repeated conduct or where the alleged perpetrator may pose a continuing threat to the University Community.

The Title IX Coordinator is the person responsible for evaluating requests for confidentiality.

D. Resolution

If a complaint of sexual misconduct is found to be substantiated, the University will take appropriate corrective and remedial action to prevent the recurrence of the conduct and correct its discriminatory effects. Students, faculty, and employees found to be in violation of this policy will be subject to discipline up to and including written reprimand, suspension, demotion, termination, or expulsion. Affiliates and program participants may be removed from University programs and/or prevented from returning to campus. Remedial steps may also include counseling for the complainant, academic, transportation, work, or living accommodations for the complainant, separation of the parties, and training for the respondent and other persons.

E. Bad Faith Complaints

While the University encourages all good faith complaints of sexual misconduct, the University has the responsibility to balance the rights of all parties. Therefore, if the University’s investigation reveals that a complaint was knowingly false, the complaint will be dismissed and the person who filed the knowingly false complaint may be subject to discipline.
VII. ACADEMIC FREEDOM
While the University is committed to the principles of free inquiry and free expression, sexual misconduct is neither legally protected expression nor the proper exercise of academic freedom.

VIII. EDUCATION
Because the University recognizes that the prevention of sexual misconduct, as well as domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, is important, it offers educational programming to a variety of groups such as: campus personnel; incoming students and new employees participating in orientation; and members of student organizations. Among other elements, such training will cover relevant definitions, procedures, and sanctions; will provide safe and positive options for bystander intervention; and will provide risk reduction information, including recognizing warning signs of abusive behavior and how to avoid potential attacks. To learn more about education resources, please contact the Title IX Coordinator.
Complaint Resolution Procedures

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT: COMPLAINT RESOLUTION PROCEDURES

I. General Principle

A. Applicability

These Complaint Resolution Procedures apply to the resolution of all reports under the Sexual Misconduct Policy. They apply to the resolution of complaints against students, faculty, administrators, staff, and third parties, and they are the exclusive means of resolving complaints of sexual misconduct.

B. Administration

For purposes of these complaint resolution procedures, “Investigating Officer” means the person appointed by the Title IX Coordinator. When a student is the respondent, Title IX Coordinator will appoint the Investigating Officer from the pool of Student Conduct Officers. When an employee, faculty member, or other third party is the respondent, the Title IX Coordinator will appoint the Investigating Officer from a pool of Grievance Team members appointed by the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. The Investigating Officer(s) shall have responsibility for administering these complaint resolution procedures. At their discretion, the Title IX Coordinator may appoint multiple Investigating Officers to work together in administering these complaint resolution procedures.

C. Promptness, Fairness and Impartiality

These procedures provide for prompt, fair, and impartial investigations and resolutions. The Investigating Officer shall discharge his or her obligations under these complaint resolution procedures fairly and impartially. If the Investigating Officer determines that he or she cannot apply these procedures fairly and impartially because of the identity of a complainant, respondent, or witness, or due to any other conflict of interest, the Investigating Officer shall inform the Title IX Coordinator so that another appropriate individual can be designated to administer these procedures.

D. Training

These procedures will be implemented by officials who receive annual training on the issues related to sexual misconduct, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking and how to conduct an investigation and hearing process that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability.

II. Investigation and Resolution of the Complaint

A. Preliminary Matters

1. Timing of the Investigation

The University will endeavor to conclude its investigation and resolution of the complaint within sixty (60) calendar days of receiving it. Both the complainant and the respondent will be given periodic updates regarding the status of the investigation. If either the complainant or respondent needs additional time to prepare or to gather their witnesses or information, they shall notify the Investigating Officer in writing explaining how much additional time is needed and why it is needed. The Investigating Officer shall respond to any such request within three (3) days.

2. Informal Resolution

Informal means of resolution, such as mediation, may be used in lieu of the formal investigation and determination procedure. However, informal means may only be used with the complainant’s voluntary cooperation and the involvement of the Title IX Coordinator. The complainant, however, will not be required to work out the problem directly with the respondent. Moreover, the complainant may terminate any such informal means at any time. In any event, informal means, even on a voluntary basis, will not be used to resolve complaints alleging any form of sexual violence.
3. Interim Measures

At any time during the investigation, the Investigating Officer, in coordination with the Title IX Coordinator, may determine that interim remedies or protections for the parties involved or witnesses are appropriate. These interim remedies may include separating the parties, placing limitations on contact between the parties, suspension, or making alternative class-placement or workplace arrangements. Failure to comply with the terms of these interim remedies or protections may constitute a separate violation of the Sexual Misconduct Policy.

4. Support Person

During the investigation process, both a complainant and a respondent may ask a support person to accompany him or her at all stages of the process. In cases involving multiple complainants or respondents, the support person cannot be another complainant or respondent. The support person does not serve as an advocate on behalf of the complainant or respondent, may not be actively involved in any proceedings, and he or she must agree to maintain the confidentiality of the process.

5. Pending Criminal Investigation

Some instances of sexual misconduct may also constitute criminal conduct. In such instances, the complainant is also encouraged to file a report with the appropriate law enforcement authorities and, if requested, the University will assist the complainant in doing so. The pendency of a criminal investigation, however, does not relieve the University of its responsibilities under Title IX. Therefore, to the extent doing so does not interfere with any criminal investigation, the University will proceed with its own investigation and resolution of the complaint.

6. Rights of the Parties

During the investigation and resolution of a complaint, the complainant and respondent shall have equal rights. They include:
• Equal opportunity to identify and have considered witnesses and other relevant evidence;
• Similar and timely access to all information considered by the Investigating Officer;
• Equal opportunity to review any statements or evidence provided by the other party; and
• Equal access to review and comment upon any information independently developed by the Investigating Officer.

B. Commencement of the Investigation

Once a complaint is made, the Investigating Officer will commence an investigation of it as soon as practicable, but not later than seven (7) days after the complaint is made. The purpose of the investigation is to determinate whether it is more likely than not that the alleged behavior occurred and, if so, whether it constitutes sexual misconduct. During the course of the investigation, the Investigating Officer may receive counsel from University administrators, the University’s attorneys, or other parties as needed.

In certain narrow circumstances, the Investigating Officer may commence an investigation even if the complainant requests that the matter not be pursued. In such a circumstance, the Investigating Officer will take all reasonable steps to investigate and respond to the matter in a manner that is informed by the complainant’s articulated concerns. Said investigation shall as much as possible preserve the confidentiality of both the complainant and respondent. However, this is not guaranteed or possible in all situations.

C. Content of the Investigation

During the investigation, the complainant will have the opportunity to describe his or her allegations and present supporting witnesses or other evidence. The respondent will have an opportunity to respond to the allegations and present supporting witnesses or other evidence. The Investigating Officer will review the statements and evidence presented and may, depending on the circumstances, interview others with relevant knowledge, review documentary materials, and take any other appropriate action to gather and consider information relevant to the complaint. All parties and witnesses involved in the investigation are expected to cooperate and provide complete and truthful information.

D. Resolution of Complaints Against Student Respondents

At the conclusion of the Investigating Officer’s investigation, the Investigating Officer will prepare a draft written report. The report will explain the scope of the investigation and identify findings of fact. The Investigating Officer will present the report to the Title IX Coordinator, and the Title IX Coordinator will review the draft, revise as necessary, and finalize it.

If the final written report finds that any allegations in the complaint were found to be substantiated by a preponderance of the evidence resulting in a policy violation, the Title IX Coordinator will consult with the Provost/Dean with jurisdiction over the complainant and respondent to determine discipline and remedial measures. The Title IX Coordinator will prepare an addendum setting forth the discipline and remedial measures. Examples of such measures include: no-contact orders, classroom reassignment, the provision of counseling or other support services, training, and discipline for the perpetrator, including up to termination, or other appropriate institutional sanctions.

The Title IX Coordinator will notify the parties of the outcome in writing as described in Section II.F, below. This document will explain the scope of the investigation, identify findings of fact (if any), and state whether any allegations in the complaint were found to be substantiated by a preponderance of the evidence resulting in a policy violation.

The final written determination of the Investigator shall be final subject only to the right of appeal set forth in Section III, below.

E. Resolution of Complaints Against Employee Respondents, Faculty Respondents, and Third-Party Respondents

At the conclusion of the Investigating Officer’s investigation, the Investigating Officer will prepare a draft written report. The report will explain the scope of the investigation and identify findings of fact. The Investigating Officer will present the report to the Title IX Coordinator, and the Title IX Coordinator will review the draft, revise as necessary, and finalize it.

If the final written report finds that any allegations in the complaint were found to be substantiated by a preponderance of the evidence resulting in a policy violation, the Title IX Coordinator will consult with the University administrator with jurisdiction over the complainant and respondent to determine discipline and remedial measures. The Title IX Coordinator will prepare an addendum setting forth the discipline and remedial measures. Examples of such measures include: no-contact orders, classroom reassignment, the provision of counseling or other support services, training, and discipline for the perpetrator, including up to termination, or other appropriate institutional sanctions. Discipline may be directly imposed or, in cases with faculty member respondents, a referral may be made for further discipline proceedings in accordance with faculty discipline proceedings.

The Title IX Coordinator will notify the parties of the outcome in writing as described in Section II.F, below.

F. Notification of Outcome

The Title IX Coordinator will provide written notification of the outcome of the investigation and any addendum to the complainant and the respondent within three (3) days of its completion. If necessary, the version of the addendum provided to the complainant and/or respondent will be redacted to ensure that information concerning any remedial and/or disciplinary measures is disclosed in a manner consistent with Title IX, the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (“FERPA”), and the Clery Act, as explained by the April 4, 2011 Dear Colleague Letter issued by the U.S. Department of Education, available at http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/letters/colleague-201104.pdf.

G. Special Procedure for Complaints Against the President, the Title IX Coordinator, or Other Administrators Ranked Higher than the Title IX Coordinator
If a complaint involves alleged conduct on the part of the University’s President, the University’s Board of Trustee’s will designate the Investigating Officer(s). Based on the information gathered by the investigation, the Board of Trustee’s will prepare and issue the written report determining the complaint. The determination of the Board of Trustees is final and not subject to appeal.

If a complaint involves alleged conduct on the part of the Title IX Coordinator or a Vice President of the University, the University’s President will designate the Investigating Officer. Based on the information gathered by the investigation, the President will prepare and issue the written report determining the complaint. The determination of the President is final and not subject to appeal.

III. Appeals

A. Grounds of Appeal

The complainant or respondent may appeal the determination of a complaint only on the following grounds:

- There is a substantial likelihood that newly discovered information, not available at the time evidence was presented to the Investigating Officer would result in a different decision;
- There was a procedural error significant enough to call the outcome into question;
- There was a clear error in factual findings;
- Bias or prejudice on the part of the Investigating Office; or
- The punishment or the corrective action imposed is disproportionate to the offense.

B. Method of Appeal

In cases where there is a student respondent, appeals must be filed as follows:

- Appeals from complaints that allege Student Misconduct that do not involve Sexual Misconduct shall be directed to the Dean of Student Affairs. The Dean of Student Affairs, for complaints regarding students in the Adult Professional Online Studies(APOS) programs, may delegate the resolution of the appeal to the Campus Executive, Manager or Director as deemed appropriate. This is not a mandate and is at the discretion of the Dean of Student Affairs;

- Appeals from complaints that allege Academic Misconduct shall be directed to the Associated University Provost and Dean of Instruction;

- Appeals from complaints that allege a student or faculty have committed sexual misconduct shall be directed to the University Provost.

In cases where there is an employee or third party respondent, appeals must be filed as follows:

- All appeals from complaints that allege violations by employees or third party respondents shall be directed to the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

In this capacity, the official to which the appeals are submitted to shall be referred to as “Appeal Officials.” The appeal must be filed within ten (10) days of receipt of the written report determining the outcome of the complaint. The appeal must be in writing and contain the following:

- Name of the complainant;
- Name of the respondent;
- A statement of the determination of the complaint, including corrective action if any;
- A detailed statement of the basis for the appeal including the specific facts, circumstances, and argument in support of it; and
- Requested action, if any.

The appellant may request a meeting with the appropriate Appeal Official, but the decision to grant a meeting is within the Appeal Official’s discretion. However, if a meeting is granted, then the other party will be granted a similar opportunity.

IV. Resolution of the Appeal
The Appeal Official will resolve the appeal within fifteen (15) days of receiving it and may take any and all actions that he/she determines to be in the interest of a fair and just decision. The decision of the Appeal Official is final. The Appeal Official shall issue a short and plain, written statement of the resolution of the appeal, including any changes made to the Title IX Coordinator’s previous written determination. The written statement shall be provided to the complainant, respondent, and the Title IX Coordinator within three (3) days of the resolution.

In some cases involving faculty member respondents, the discipline imposed may result in additional process following the appeal.

V. Documentation

Throughout all stages of the investigation, resolution, and appeal, the Investigating Officer, the Title IX Coordinator, and the Appeal Officials as the case may be, are responsible for maintaining documentation of the investigation and appeal, including documentation of all proceedings conducted under these complaint resolution procedures, which may include written findings of fact, transcripts, and audio recordings.

VI. Intersection With Other Procedures

These complaint resolution procedures are the exclusive means of resolving complaints alleging violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy. To the extent there are any inconsistencies between these complaint resolution procedures and other University grievance, complaint, or discipline procedures, these complaint resolution procedures will control the resolution of complaints alleging violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy.
